Have an enjoyable

The Shape of Things

VALLEY CENTRAL

R.D.1 BOX 2
MONTGOMERY, NEW YORK

VOL. 30

We're in great shape!

Valley Central is in great shape! Can you hear and see the changes? No longer does the bell leave our ears ringing, but instead gently prompts us to move on to bigger and better things in our next class. There is an eight-period day to allow time for all the studies we wish to pursue. The halls, locker rooms and lavatories are shaped up and looking fine. There is a keen sense of pride.

What else? New clubs, such as Dance club and VASA broaden the horizon for V.C. students. Mr. DiBello's open door policy allows him to see our bright, smiling faces and us to view his big, new office. Yes, changes are here.

Have you found the Viking spirit? You don't have to look far. It's seen in the faces of athletes, sport fans, students, and teachers here at Valley Central. We couldn't call ourselves a student body without the concern of these people who make it what it is.

Although the years here are few, their importance is awesome! It is at Valley Central where we have Shared times with friends, Helped to make something special, Aspired to live our dreams, Persevered in our studies, and have gained an Experience of a lifetime! Truly, this is the time to remember.

Echoing through the halls of Valley Central, is the sound of voices. Those of memories, fun times, and laughter. As time passes, the shape of our lives will change. Yet, we will never forget those who cared enough to help us reach for the stars.

DEDICATION

Mentor - Teacher - Friend

Within the caring circle of Valley Central teachers, one quiet lady stands out. The quality she brings to the classroom and the quality of her overall personality is contagious. She brings such fire and enthusiasm to teaching, that a student can't help but believe there's something fantastic inside room 228.

Mrs. Anna Brooks came to Valley Central in 1979. She characterizes her classroom situation and post-session help by grouping kids at the board, drifting around the room, and lending an always-sure helping hand when needed.

A former Gradus Honoris adviser of two years, Mrs. Anna Brooks shows a true love for learning, teaching, guiding, and most of all, her students.

We, the editors and staff of the 1988 Viking Log, proudly dedicate our yearbook to Mrs. Anna Brooks.

Keeping Us In Shape

Always there to keep us in shape is Principal, Joseph Di Bello. Caring and sharing are two words that describe him. Caring enough to keep his door open and sharing with us the victories and disappointments at athletic events and activities are just two aspects of Mr. Di Bello's character. Keeping us in shape with a word of wisdom, a reprimand, friendly encouragement, or a casual hello, our principal lets us know he is there.The Viking Log salutes Mr. Joseph Di Bello as he guides us through our high school years and keeps us in great shape.

Mr. Don Crispell, Mr. Nicholas Ryder and Mr. John Walsh stroll the halls, administer discipline, and communicate with students and faculty. Mr. Crispell, as assistant principal at the head of the guidance department, is concerned with student schedules, goals and accomplishments. Mr. Walsh, as intern, is concerned with the general operation of the school and discipline of the students, and Mr. Ryder, as assistant principal, is concerned with all. It is with a sense of sadness that we bid Mr. Ryder farewell, but it is also with a sense of genuine fondness and concern that he has a successful and fulfilling career as Athletic Director at Washingtonville. As S.G.A. adviser, and all-around great person, Mr. Ryder has done much for the spirit of the school and the growth of individuals.

V.C.'s music department is well-staffed

Valley Central's music program has been blessed with two outstanding teachers as well as many musicians. Led by Mr. John Nash, V.C.'s band members are active throughout the year. All band members spend a great deal of time with daily practice under the superb direction of Mr. Nash. Inspired by Mr. Steven Zeltmann, many more students have become involved in the vocal program this year. Concert Choir, formally known as A Cappella Choir, became involved in several community activities. Mixed Chorus and Girls Chorus displayed new-found enthusiasm in every musical arrangement preformed. Razor's Edge added energy to each note sang this year. The Madrigals, a new addition to the chorus program, have made beautiful music with their elite harmonizing.

Noteworthy

Several music festivals are held throughout New York State each year. The All-County festival is composed of musical students from Orange County. In order to be a part of this group, students must rehearse for two days at the school where the concert is held. This year Valley Central hosted the festival.

The Area All-State Festival is made up of students from our zone in New York State. Selections for this group is determined by performance ratings at a competition held in the previous spring by the New York State School Music Association (N.Y.S.S.M.A.).

Tha All-State Music Festival is held for three days at a hotel where students rehearse. This year Valley Central sent two students to the Festival in the Mixed and Women's Chorus. These students have received the highest scores in the N.Y.S.S.M.A. competition.

In the home stretch

It takes very dedicated athletes to meet the challenge of cross country. They endure the long, lonely road. It is a test of character as much as a test of skill. The athletes must have the stamina and will to keep going: to push themselves that final distance. The victory is as much personal as it is a team win.

Riding the Blue Wave

The V.C. Boys' Basketball team withstood an up and down season to finish with a fury and reach the Section 9 Playoffs for the 3rd straight year. The Vikings capped their league season with victories over Monroe Woodbury and Pine Bush. The Vikings then traveled to Newburgh to face the mighty Goldbacks in the first sectional game. Though the exciting overtime contest did not produce a victory, the whole Viking family had much to be proud of for a successful season.

We are the Champions !

The nucleus for a very good season returned with this year's Varsity wrestling team. Laden with experience and talent the Vikings were heavy favorites to defend their league and sectional tourrnament crowns.

V.C. set several school, league and sectional records. They laid claim of OCIIA Dual meet champion with an undefeated league record of 12-0. First of all,while defending their county tournament title they qualified all 14 of their wrestlers for sectionals, and in doing so demolished the rest of the league. But the domination did not stop here, as V.C. grabbed its second straight Section Title the next weekend. It produced five sectional champions to represent us at the state level.Valley Central's show continued. Four of the five representatives placed in the state meet; something no other high school can claim at the states.

It was a grand season. A season of records, accomplishments and one that will be used as a standard for all years to come. It was a very exciting year; one that was filled with so many memories.

We Go Together

This year, the spirit of Rydell High burst through the doors of Valley Central.Never before had a school play caused so much excitement between students and faculty. Under the direction of Mr. Stephen Zeltmann, the "Greasers" brought their laughter, tears and comedy to Valley Central. Headed by Gino Terranova (top), as Danny Zuko, and Tammy Goins (bottom) as Sandy Dumbrowski, the cast was made up of musically superior students and a twist. Special members of the faculty were also invited to join in the fun of putting on the show. With the help of Mrs. Janice Smalling as choreographer, Mr. Ed Green on sets, the assistance of Mr. James Lignori, and a fine cast and crew, Mr. Zeltmann once again dazzled the audience with a spectacular performance.

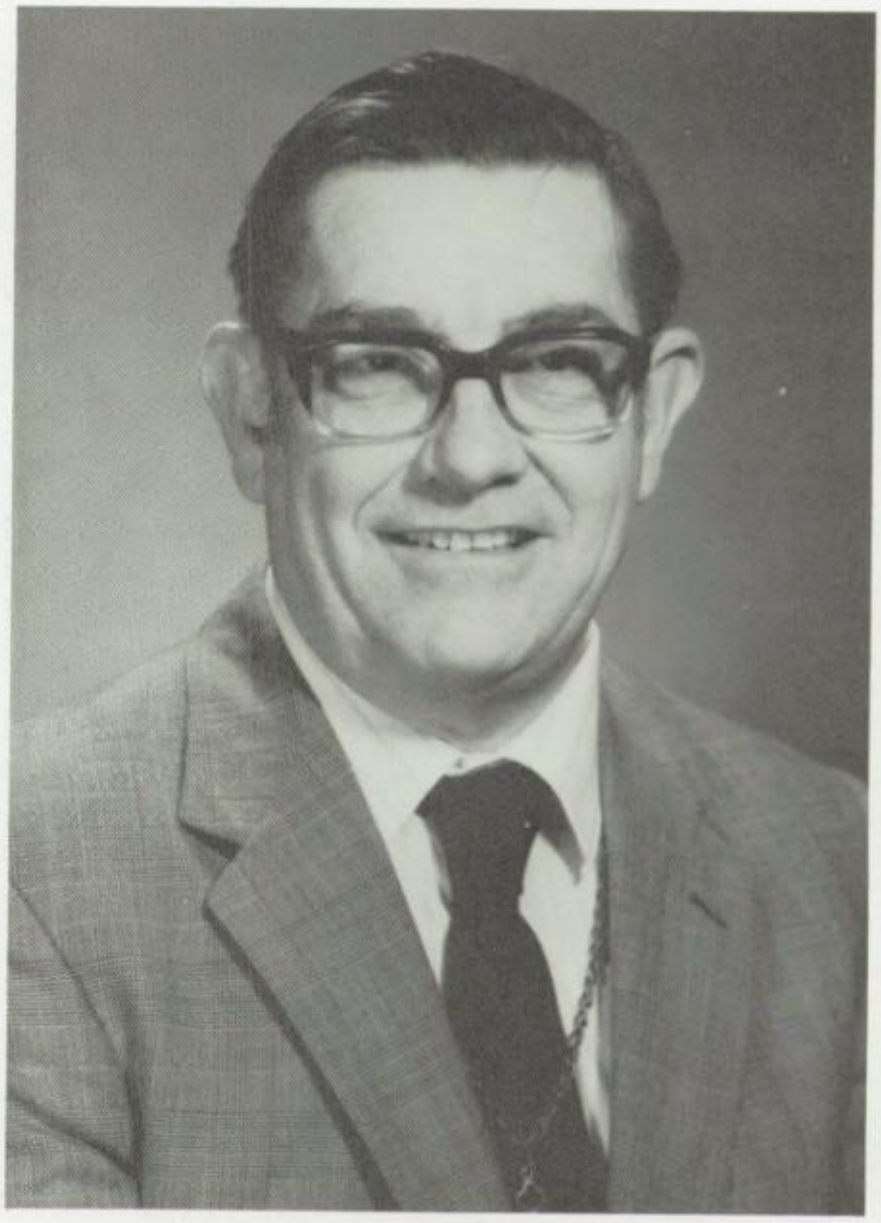
Retirement



Mr. Robert A. Swanwick

Teacher, philosopher, friend - dignity, love and self-respect is what he teaches. It was no coincidence that Mr. Swanwick became a teacher of social studies for he believes in the dignity of all people and if there is one concept that he wanted his students to grasp it was that concept. To him a belief is not what you say- it's what you do - it requires action each and every day of your life. What does it profit a person to go through a process without a change in his or her behavior?

Mr. Swanwick was born and raised in Orange County and was one of the first students to attend Orange County Community College. He earned his Bachelor's and Master's degrees from St. John's University. He served in the Navy before college and came to teach at Valley Central in the Walden building in 1958. He has, therefore, served our school district for thirty years, teaching two generations of students.

On behalf of the Valley Central students, faculty and staff, the Viking Log wishes you a happy and healthy retirement.

Special thanks

Mr. Joseph Di Bello: For all your patience on late nights and weekends, snow days and holidays.

Mr. Donald Crispell and the Guidance Staff: For student lists and photo I.D.'s.

Mr. Nicholas Ryder: For guiding us through fundraising and being there when we called.

Mrs. Stell Schoonmaker: For copies, supplies and the little extras.

Ms. Norma Ancona: For keeping us straight financially.

Office Secretaries: For lending us your phones and making copies in a hurry.

Faculty: For your cooperation

Mr. Kevin Byrne of Josten's Publishing: For whatever we needed at the time

Davis Studio and Benenati Photography, Mr. William Tucci, Sergio Campana, Eric Jones, Joann Giglio: For all those photos.

Parents of the Yearbook Staff: For understanding.

Mrs. Janet Di Bello: For everything.

We put it in shape

The 1988 Viking Log was shaped by editors Patty (Chatty) Hoeffner and Dina Embler. However, they would be the first to admit that all would not be well without some very special people: Steve (are you working?) Casper, Dara (go get us food after you glue) McCarley, Becky (have you typed that) Perez, Tammy (where is it) Flickenschild, Chris (what did you file it under) Hurst, Andrew (keep an eye on Mrs. Di Bello) Goldberg, Barbara (you have to stay) Davidson, Eric (index this for us) Jones, Sergio (take that picture) Campana, Chris (the ad man) Malley, Kristine (the ad lady) Manuele, Cheryl (we miss you) Howard, Tammy (the writer) Goins, Laurie (the Saturday girl) Hickey, JoAnne (the rah-rah music major) Nokland, Jen (you're our type) Martin and all those CAPtivating people in Journalism classes.

CENTER: VIKING LOG: W. Westervelt, J. Spignardo, C. Hurst, S. Casper, P. Hoeffner, L. Hickey, J. Beatty, M. Cocks, E. Jones, G. Bullis, M. McFadden, T. Forrester, M. Rector, D. McCarley, B. Perez, K. Thompson, T. Flickenschild, C. Howard, T. Gorden, T. Goins, J. Meisel, J. Katonah, B. Davidson, J. Nokland, B. Griffith, J. DiBello adviser, K. Manuele, D. Nagy, D. Lefavber.LEFT: REVELATION: M. Rector, D. Blanchard, J. Beatty, J. Lowe, S. Bento, B. Huskey, T. Goins, M. Davis, D. Gesner, R. Montouro.TOP LEFT: Sharing a few last precious moments chasing a yearbook photographer, are Cheryl Howard and Becky Perez. TOP RIGHT: "Stories, I need stories, give me stories!" thinks Wayne Westervelt as he bangs his head against the wall. ABOVE: "Come take a picture of me tomorrow- I have a newspaper deadline!" says another exasperated editor, Jeremy Lignori.

Mr. Beltmann,
I will sign it by my face since you've taken such an interest in it. Seriously I have to thank you for everything. You have given me so much. No one has ever believed in me so easily before. When I look at you I see everything I can do but am too afraid. You give me courage and I'm sure I'll be running back to you next year when I'm home from college. You have a gift to see things in people that no one else sees. Don't ever leave VC, the kids need you too much. The school came alive when with your music and especially the plays. "Music Man" and "Grease" were amazing and I hope there are many more in the future. Keep doing what your doing!
I will never forget you and if I make it it's because of the push you gave me when it I needed it. You've been a special friend and I'll miss you.
Thanks again,

Friends shape our lives.

Shaping our lives with the dreams of yesterday, hope for tomorrow, but living for today.

Hi Mr. Zeltman,

I don't know where to start! I'm going to miss you. I thank God that he has given me such a special teacher ... and friend. You were always there to listen, Mr. Zeltman, and I thank you. I guess that's all you need sometimes.

Your encouragement has been a stronghold for me. I feel more confident musically and also within myself. I've had so many wonderful experiences here - ones that will be in my memories always.

"You'll never walk alone..." I believe I never will - for you will be in my heart.

All my love,
♫ Tammy Sons

Dear Zelman:

Thank you. You have been so nice to me - especially on those days when I just wanted to crawl under a rock somewhere and die! Even though we really didn't get to know each other very well - I always felt like I could talk to you (even though I didn't as often as I should have) I felt that I could know what I mean?!

I am going to miss you so much. Who's going to pick on me out in California? I guess what I'm trying to say is - I'll be thinking about you. Take care of yourself.

Love ya,
Dani.

P.S. Thanks for the pictures. I'll have to send you some of me and my friends. Maybe you can send me some of you and your friends. Deal?
